

Tyranny of the Judiciary
—
Glory of the Republic

EDWARD J. FURTON

The American Deist
Philadelphia

Meaning of the Cover

The eye of God hovers over
Thomas Jefferson, who represents the Founders.
These men were inspired,
not by the supernatural light of revelation, but by the natural light of reason.

Cover Design

Nicholas J. Furton

www.AmericanDeist.com

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

I. TYRANNY OF THE JUDICIARY

The Supremacy of the People
Freedom to Alter the Constitution
An Oath Sworn before God
Explanation of the Religious Test
Willful Misinterpretation of Law
Natural Religion at the Founding
The Three-Fold Division of Power

II. CONSTITUTIONAL CONTRAVENTION

An Example of Judicial Usurpation
The Essence of Oligarchic Tyranny
Laws Beyond the Reach of the People
Other Examples of Judicial Overreach
Imitation by the State Judiciaries
The Independence of the Judiciary
The Moral Sense of the People

III. NATURE AS SOURCE OF LAW

Six Points in Need of Proof

The Original State of Nature

Reasoning about the Self-Evident

Self-Evidence at the Founding

Life, Liberty, and Happiness

Where Is the State of Nature?

The Greatest Natural Right

IV. GLORY OF THE REPUBLIC

The Right of Religious Liberty

Christianity and the Founding

Compatible with All Faiths

The Myth of the Intellectual Elite

Misreading the First Amendment

Various Replies and Rebuttals

Resurgence of the Republic